Foreword

Reviewing our high school years, we hope that this scrapbook will preserve memories of both work and fun. We shall never forget our absorbing interest in classes, our wonderful times at games and other school functions. We shall also remember clubs and societies in which we participated as well as enduring friendships we formed. Gone is the class of 1958; yet we hope that this book will preserve its memory.

In Memoriam

Sylvia M. O'Donnell

Your laugh was just like music;
It lingered in the heart,
And where its melody was heard,
The ills from life did part;

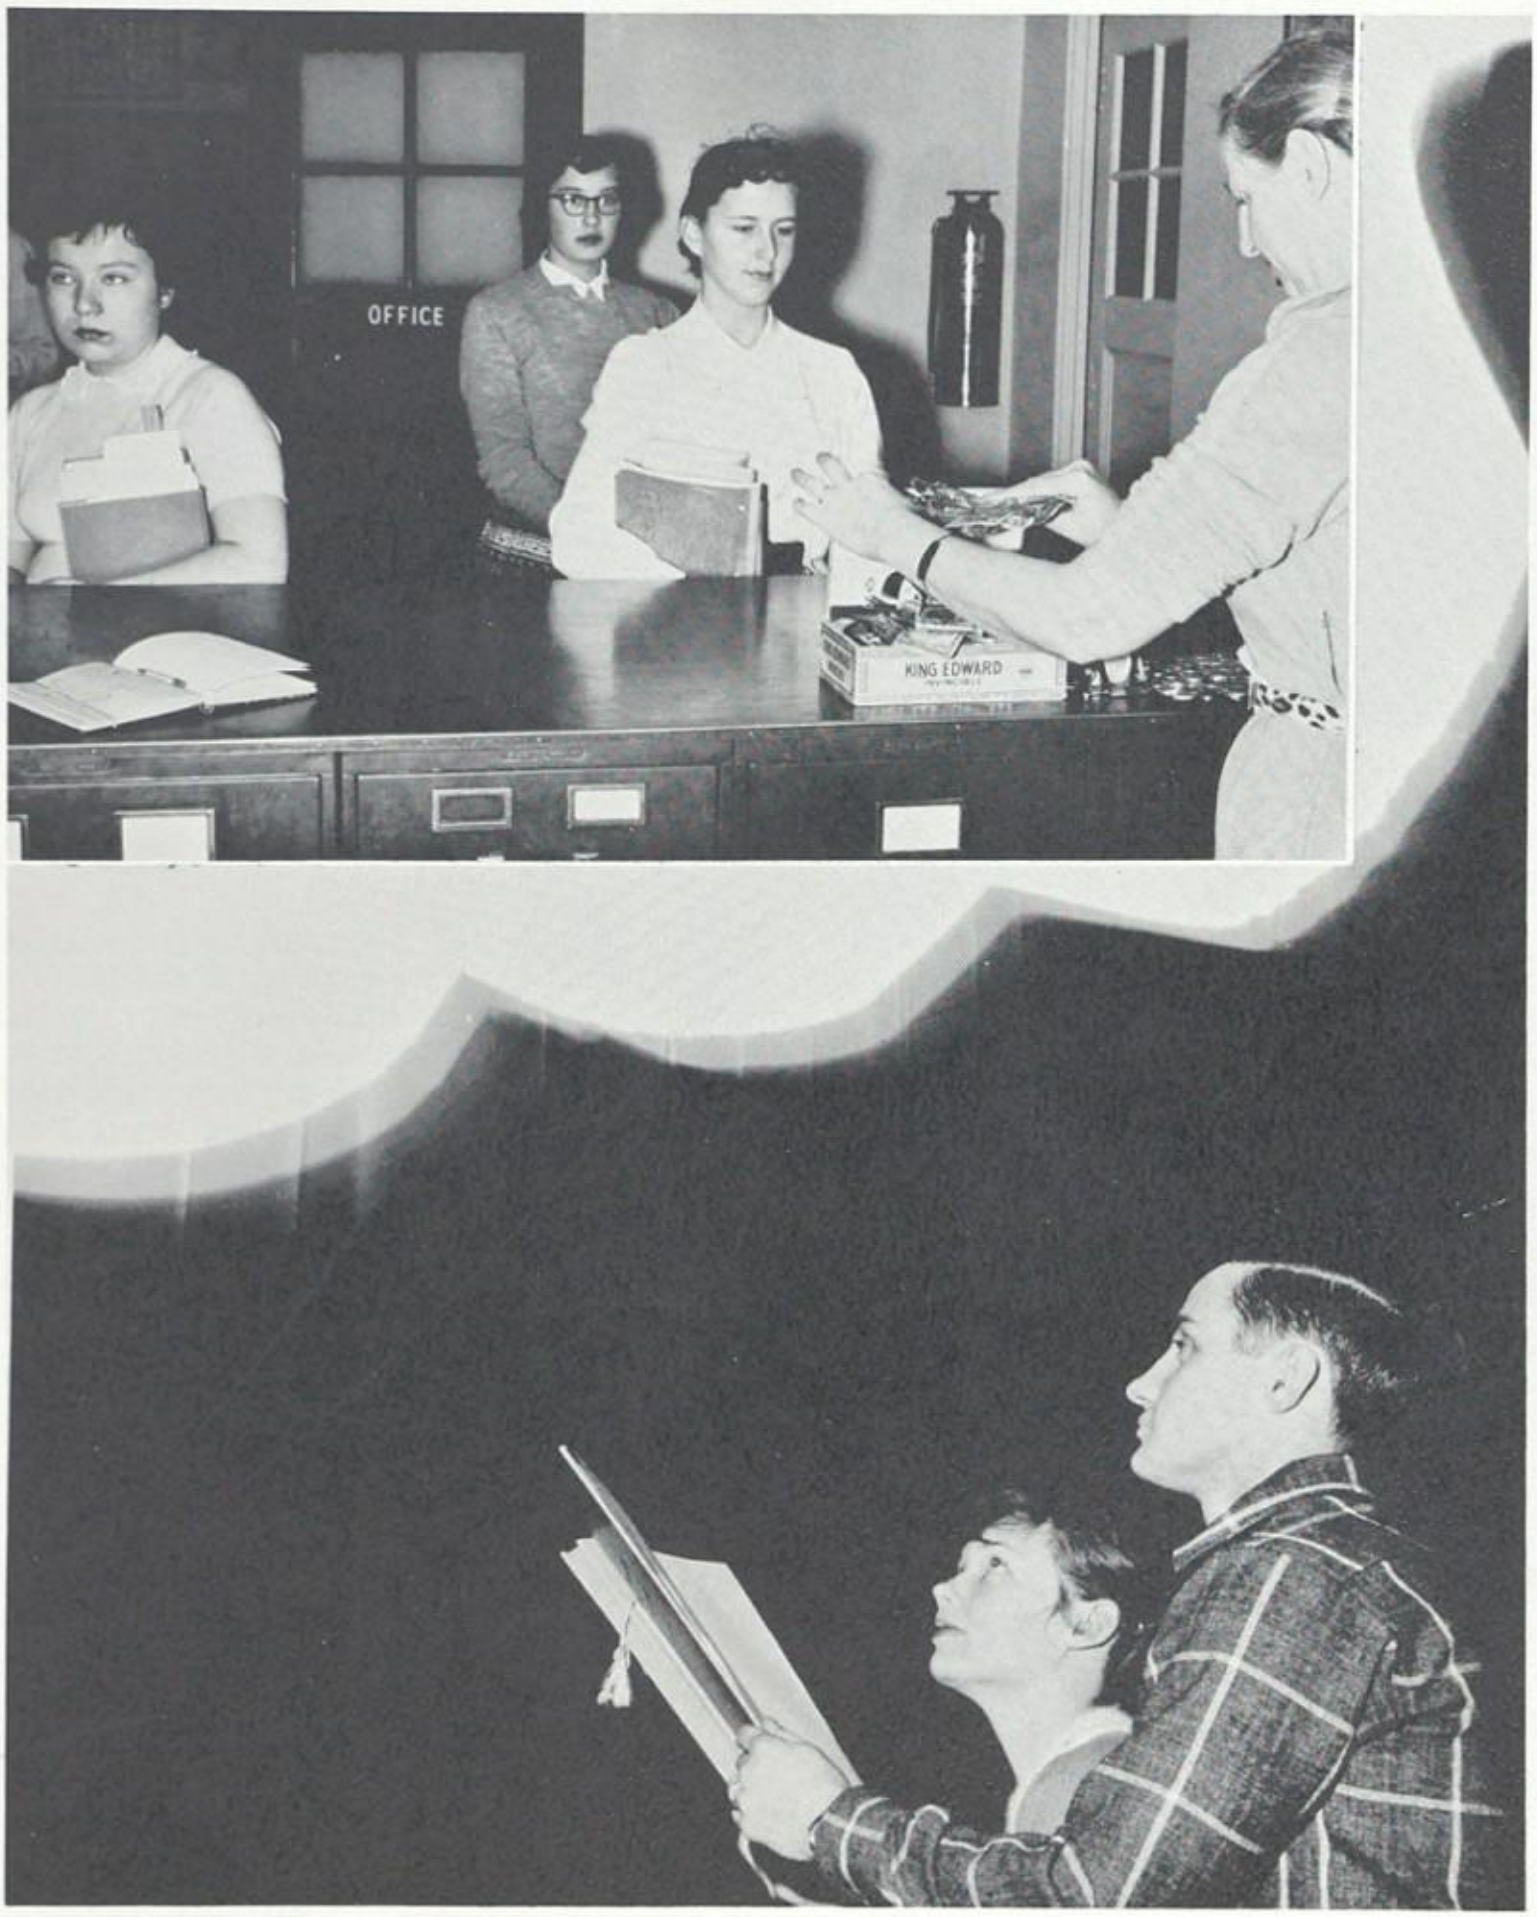
And happy thoughts came crowding
Its joyful notes to greet;
Your laugh was just like music
For making living sweet!

Dedication

F. W. SCHNITZLEIN

We, the graduating class of 1958, dedicate this, our annual Yearbook, to a man who has helped Franklin Academy in every way he can. . . . . Mr. F. W. Schnitzlein. We shall always have pleasant memories of him and his thoughtfulness toward the student body, faculty, and school system.

Administration



Board of Education

Principal

Harlie Smith

Our Board of Education might well look at Memories as a living record of the life work of the graduates of Franklin Academy. Fondest of all memories are those of achievement. To provide the means and facilities whereby men and women, having graduated from Franklin Academy, are enabled to live a life of service to their fellow men, and to be able to recognize the worth of their efforts embodied in accomplishments of Franklin Academy graduates--this is memory personified. Those students who were placed in their care, educationally, and who failed to take full advantage of all that was offered them, those students our Board of Education pities rather than censures. When a graduate of Franklin Academy attains a position high in trust and service, what a joy it is to be able to say, "We knew him when. . ."

Our memories are woven into the tapestry of time, some with the somber hues of disappointments, others with the brilliant colors of glorious achievements. How important it is to see how the somber hues set off and accentuate the brighter ones! What is most important, however, is to realize that we, as the weavers, have the privilege of keeping the tapestry bright and clean.

Appreciation

Entering high school four years ago, we met men and women who steered us through difficult tasks that led to our eventual graduation.

We may have forgotten our teachers, as years passed by. Looking over our scrapbook, however, we remember them with gratitude.

Custodians

A very important function in efficient operation of our school is the work of our janitors.

Dedicated to their primary task of maintaining a clean school, these conscientious workers are also willing to serve at basketball games, dances and other school functions.

As we review our school activities, we shall remember gratefully the cheerful assistance given by our janitors.

G. Willet,
M. Reynolds

Office Staff

Mrs. Gerald Nichols, Mrs. Gerald Peets

Mrs. Vincent Waryha

Efficiency pervades the atmosphere of our office, ably staffed by Mrs. Peets, Mrs. Nichols and Mrs. Waryha.

Although constantly immersed in a maze of intricate details, the office staff is always ready to give cheerful assistance to students.

With sincere appreciation, the class of '58 will remember our office staff.

Cafeteria Staff

A prominent place in our school scrapbook will always be reserved for the Cafeteria Staff. Under efficient direction of Mrs. Doria, the staff daily prepares meals for some 900 students and teachers.

Nutritious food enjoyed among congenial friends makes lunch periods in the cafeteria a happy memory.

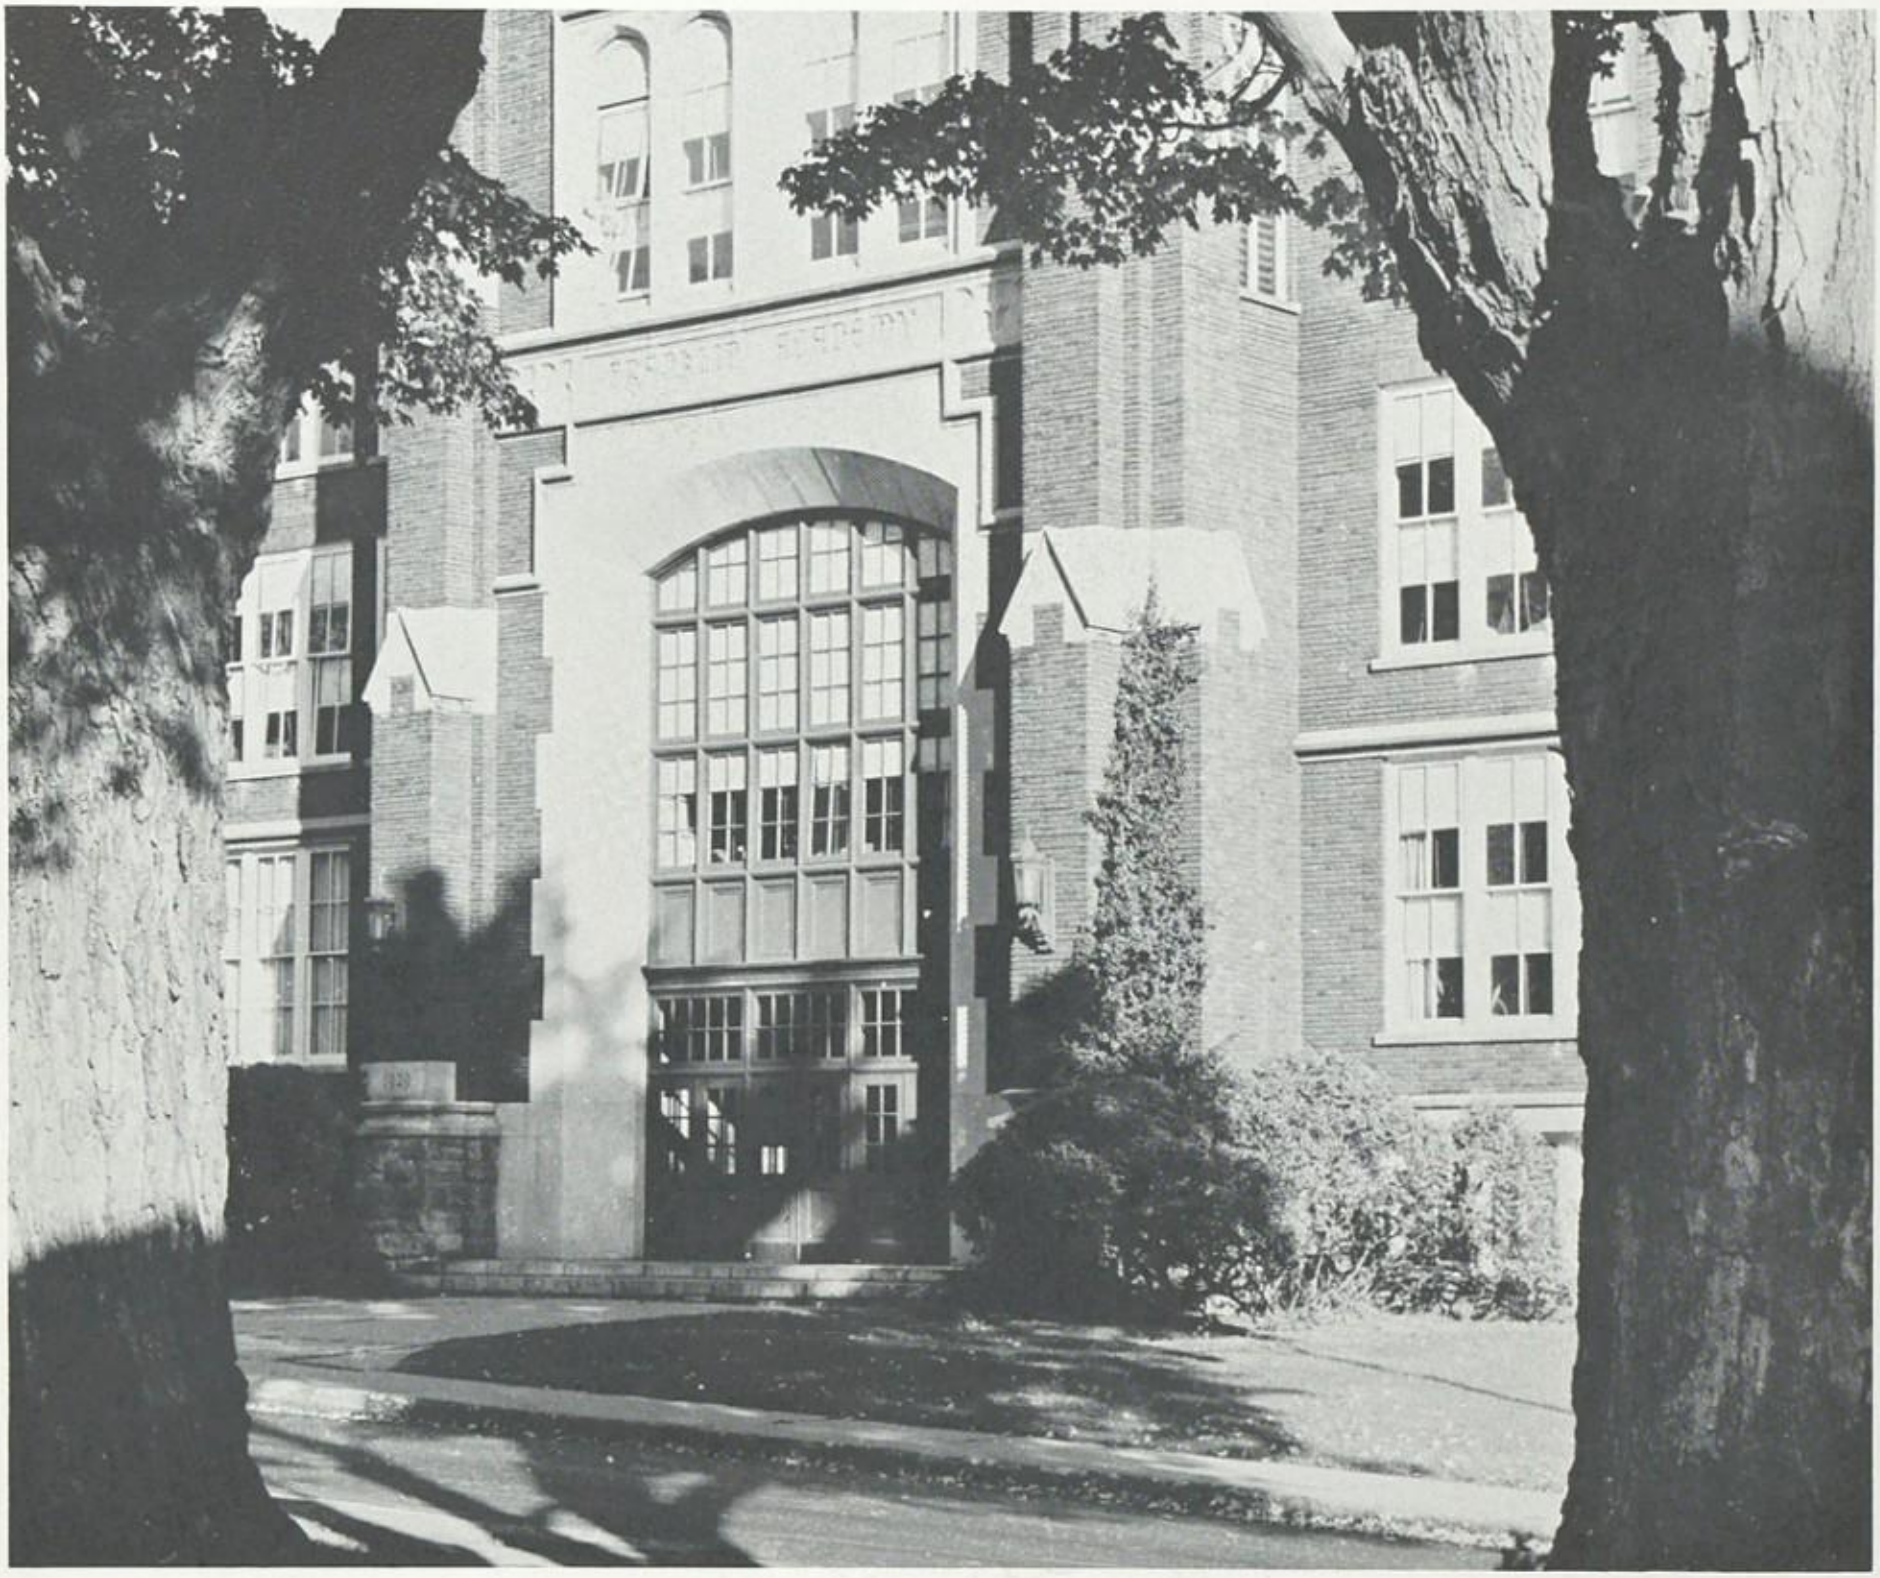
Students receive lunches during fifth period in the cafeteria.

V. Kelly, H. Duquette, F. Gardner, M. Benware, T. Thompson, M. Lamica, M. Doria.

Michael Brown lends a helping hand to cafeteria staff at lunch hour.

Helpers in cafeteria rush to serve everyone his lunch during fifth period.

Franklin Academy



Curriculum

Turning the pages of our scrapbook, we find an imposing list of courses offered at Franklin Academy.

Among these courses are:

Business
Classical
General
Scientific
Vocational

Following various routes leading to eventual completion of our chosen course challenged our energies during four years. With determination, we advanced toward graduation.

Class History

Sept. '54- June '55- Eager to accept the challenges of high school, we entered Franklin Academy as freshmen in September. Our first job was electing officers. We picked Claire LaRose, assisted by Wesley Clark, to lead us. George Harte recorded the business, while Chester Hodges handled financial affairs.

Sept. '55- June '56- September, 1955, marked the beginning of our second year in Franklin Academy. During this important year, we chose Tom McMahon as our president, with Dave Manley to assist him. Our secretary was Pat Smith and our treasurer, Lynn Hardy.

Sept. '56- June '57- Our junior year started with a "bang," as we began one of our fullest programs in Franklin Academy. During this year, we participated in a maximum of school activities. Charles Vail, with the able assistance of Lynn Hardy, was elected to keep us in hand. Margaret Gravel added to our scrapbook by keeping notes, while Skip Marsden accounted for the money. This was the year for ordering class rings and planning the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom.

Sept. '57- June '58- We entered our senior year, a wonderful year, although saddened by the death of Sylvia O'Donnell, one of our beloved classmates. Throughout this year, we were engrossed in ordering pictures, caps and gowns, and name cards. In this final, important year, we elected Pat Smith as president, and added Adele Durham as vice-president. We chose Aleck Zaferakis to perform the exacting duties of secretary. Skip Marsden was our treasurer. Finally, when June came, the class of '58 walked from the familiar halls of Franklin Academy toward God and the Future.

Respectfully submitted,
Carolyn Brooks and

In our scrapbook of memories, one program from the Epsilon Ball will be among our choice souvenirs. This annual ball highlights the Epsilon activities for the year. Every member of the Court, as well as the king and queen, has just cause for pride. Each one has attained a position of exceptionally high honor in his school.

Epsilon Activities

Besides the glamorous Epsilon Ball, many other impressive activities crowd our years in Epsilon. Each year in November, Epsilon members play hosts to their initiates at the Initiation Banquet. Then at the annual Christmas Party, the task of selecting Crownbearers incites high interest. Vieing unwittingly for the role of Crownbearer, the children entertained lend an appropriate pixie flavor to the Christmas Party. Preceding Class Day in June, Epsilon members gather for their traditional breakfast, each year's final activity.

Prerequisite to joining Epsilon is an average of 85%, maintained for one year. To remain a member, the student must keep an average of 80%.

Belonging to Epsilon is an honor. Its members are proven workers, able to mix social and extra-curricular activities with studies. To these students we may look for the leadership that will help light America's future.

Peter Georges and Jeffrey Van Riper will long remember Epsilon initiation.

At Epsilon Initiation, Jeff Van Riper, George Smerlis, Bruce Griffin and John McGowan find that their noses are useful for rolling milk bottles.

French Club at Franklin Academy is composed of approximately sixty members.

This group usually opens the season of meetings and other activities with a French Tea held in early October.

Other ventures of the French Club are food sales, Christmas parties, dinners, and an annual trip to Canada in the spring. While in Montreal, we had dinner in a French restaurant.

Meetings, at which we sing French songs and play various French games, not only provide much pleasure but also stimulate new interest in French.

Lin Lavigne pours punch at French-Club party, as Judy Harwood and other members anxiously await their serving.

Governing body of our school is the Student Council. Displaying fine management and efficiency, this group has won a respected place in our album of memories.

In weekly meetings, Student Council resolves many problems confronting the student body and studies methods for improving the school. Monitor System, part of Student Council, enforces rules and keeps order in the cafeteria. Assembly Planning Committee, another unit of the Council, organizes assembly programs enjoyed by the student body.

Each year, Student Council undertakes a special project. This year, aiding "Christian Children's Fund, Incorporated" absorbed the energies of Student Council.

Led by co-editors, Robert Gravel and Betty Robinson, Yearbook Planning Staff plunged into its work of setting up the Yearbook early in September. Anyone may become a member by selling stationery or ads. To remain on the staff, he must maintain an average of 75%.

After preliminary work has been done, committees spend long hours planning the theme, cover, arrangement of articles, and picture placements.

Everyone in school will remember the dances, benefit movies, food and rummage sales which the staff sponsored to finance the '58 Yearbook.

Typing copy for Yearbook demands co-operation of staff members.

Varsity Club boasts an exclusive membership composed of F.A.'s most stalwart athletes. Earning a letter in basketball, baseball, football or track enables one to join the organization.

Among its many activities, Varsity Club takes pride each year in presenting the coveted trophies to the outstanding performers in each of the four major sports. During basketball season also, the boys serve as ushers at all home games. Climaxing our memories of Varsity Club is the annual banquet held in the spring.

Bill Collette accepts his football letter from Coach McGuire.

Gary Durham gives the speech which won him first prize in Masquer's Speaking Contest.

Masquers

Masquers, honorary dramatic society of Franklin Academy, is one of the oldest and most enjoyable organizations at F.A. Two of the year's social events are the Christmas Open House and the June Party. Masquers also sponsors a speaking contest for undergraduates. Masquers provides all the prizes and training for the contestants.

Shirley Kelly reads a report as F. Russell, S. Sorell and M. Ezro look on.

The purpose of F.H.A. is to further the interests of homemaking in the girl's own home and provide an interest for studying home economics beyond high school.

To become a member of F.H.A., a girl must take one year of homemaking. Pledges are taken from all classes. To remain a member, a girl must maintain a 75% average, pay dues, and attend the majority of meetings.

F. H. A. has four social meetings a year. Speakers who attend meetings explain opportunities available in various home economics occupations. This year, F.H.A. sent delegates to the State F.H.A. Convention in Syracuse.

Fourth Row: M. Wilson, A. Weirich, S. Smith, C. Bonville, B. Vail, S. Vail, L. Lepine, D. Marlowe, J. Langlois, S. Pieper.

One of our most cherished memories is that of Kappa, older of the two sororities in Franklin Academy. To become a member, a girl must be a pledge for one year.

Under the direction of Miss K. Curtin, meetings are held monthly at the home of various members. Highlights of the year are Kappa Football Dance and St. Valentine's Tea for teachers. Before graduation, seniors are entertained at a pajama party and lunch.

Society pages of our scrapbook bulge with treasured memories. Phi Sigma is one of the sororities in school which forms part of its social atmosphere.

Meetings, supervised by Miss Owens, faculty adviser, are held monthly at homes of members. Exchanging friendly chatter, learning to cooperate graciously and planning concertedly for ensuing activities make membership in Phi Sigma enjoyable.

Freshman Tea and Sadie Hawkins Dance are yearly events highlighting Phi Sigma's social calendar.

Photography Club

Without the work of Photography Club, publishing the Yearbook would be impossible. Trained to take and develop pictures, members of the club perform a lasting service to their school.

Vitalized by Miss Donovan's leadership, the club has prompted many boys to enjoy a new and interesting hobby.

Operators' Club, with Hugh McMahon at its helm, has proved an invaluable service to the school.

The expertly trained group supplies films for teachers, presents noon movies, and supervises backstage operations.

Besides learning fundamentals of operating the audio-visual materials, members find time for competitive basketball within their group.

Under Mr. MacDiarmid and Mr. Shortell's direction, Operators' Club leaves students with one of their fondest high school memories.

Dance Club

Rare indeed are the proverbial "wallflowers" found in our scrapbook, since the invasion of Modern Dance Club. Devoted to teaching members fundamental steps, the club also instructs students in novelty dances which they wish to learn.

Under its enthusiastic pilots, Coach McGuire and Mrs. Collins, the club is hailed with lively participation each Thursday evening. Professional instructors often visit the club to assist in teaching specific modern dances. No partner is required to attend and dancing is enjoyed by all.

Rifle Club

Lured by the prospects of a new rifle range currently under construction at Harrison School, many ardent sportsmen have joined the ranks of Rifle Club.

Firing teams, comprised of members within the club, incite keen rivalry. Plans for inter-school firing competition hold further interesting possibilities.

Besides enjoying competitive matches, members of Rifle Club gain invaluable knowledge on safety in handling rifles and in hunting.

A representative contingent of faculty advisers including Mr. Perkins, Mr. Hinman, Mr. Tutino, Mr. Douglass, and Mr. Stewart furnishes the enthusiastic guidance that makes Rifle Club so successful.

Mary Hanna hopefully watches teammate's attempt to put ball over net.

Co-ed motto, "Play the Game," makes good sportsmanship the rule for every intramural contest.

To be eligible for membership in Co-ed Club, a girl must earn 150 points through participation in the intramural program supervised by Miss Seaman after school. Members also take part in playdays held at St. Joseph's Academy and other schools in the Northern League.

Record Club

Among our happiest memories are meetings of Record Club. In these bi-monthly gatherings, Mr. Tutino, faculty adviser, explained the beginnings and development of American jazz. To illustrate its different phases, some of our thirty-five members brought records for the whole group to hear.

Discussing the records, we learned to classify music according to different periods, such as blues, Dixieland, swing, modern or progressive. This club, interpreting jazz in a jazz-conscious world, is informative as well as entertaining.

Future Nurses' Club, organized initially in 1957, acquaints high school girls with both the practical and professional aspects of nursing.

In spite of its recent inception, this club has left an impressive record in the pages of our scrapbook. Field trips to various local and area hospitals, as well as lectures by professional nurses, have been very enlightening.

Future Farmers

Our scrapbook wouldn't be complete without "Malone Aggies," chapter of Future Farmers of America. Spirited discussions of farm problems keynote monthly meetings, under Mr. Goodwin's direction. Fund raising projects for the club also stimulate interest.

Socially active too, F. F. A. sponsors dances as well as an annual banquet.

Future Teachers' Club

Future Teachers' Club is a national organization composed of students aspiring to be teachers.

Affiliated with Northern Zone Federation of Teachers' Clubs, the local F.T.A. enjoys benefits diffused by the policy-making group. At monthly meetings, supervised by Miss Sennett, F.T.A. members study important aspects of the teaching profession.

Among impressive memories of F. T. A. are opportunities provided for students to observe and aid teachers in actual classroom work.

Library Council

Library Council of Franklin Academy is mainly a service organization. Among student duties are shelving and slipping books as well as accessioning and mending them.

To be eligible for Library Council, each student must devote two periods a week to working in the library.

Annual Christmas and spring parties, sponsored by Library Council, are memorable occasions.

Memories of Library Council make us conscious of the many rewarding experiences enjoyed.

Franklin Academy

Chorus attracts an exceedingly large group of students interested in singing. Unrestricted by tryouts, students are welcome to join this organization, directed by Mr. Tutino.

Every Monday during eighth and ninth periods, strains of music issuing from Room 303 are testimony to the enjoyable activity within.

Mr. Tutino helps Chorus take care of last minute details as they practice prior to the Christmas Concert.

Choir

Choir, under the direction of Mr. V. Tutino, is one of the selected choral groups at Franklin Academy. It consists of students chosen from Chorus, who must be auditioned. Each student selected is placed in his range by the director.

Every year Choir entertains at a Christmas and Spring Concert, which is enjoyed by many. For the past few years, Choir has sung at Lake Placid for Rotary.

Students, seniors now and those to come in the future, will surely regret leaving school and the good times they had in Choir.

At final rehearsal prior to Christmas Concert, Mr. Tutino helps Choir to polish the rough edges.

Swing Sixteen

Swing Sixteen, another musical organization in our school, is one of the more popular singing groups. Selected from the Choir, these energetic singers meet each Tuesday with Mr. Tutino. Preparation for the Christmas and Spring Concerts provides a stimulating objective for their rehearsals. They also perform ably for various local organizations during the school year.

Franklin Academy Dance Band, a comparatively recent innovation among organized music groups in high school, has already won wide acclaim.

Once a week, fourteen members, directed by Mr. Shaak, experiment with and perfect new techniques.

Identified by its excellent renditions when entertaining for local dances, the band is in constant demand.

Quintones

R. Ellsworth, D. Churchill, J. Harwood, A. Durham, G. Durham.

Quintones are composed of one soprano, two altos, one tenor and one bass. Once a week they practice modern music under Mr. Tutino, who does their arranging. At Spring Concert and at local functions throughout the year, Quintones exhibit their talents.

Potsdam All-State Festival

Being chosen to participate in Potsdam All-State Festival means winning the musical "Oscar." The thrill of this experience writes its own indelible page in our scrapbook of memories.

Each year, a list of music students is sent to the conductor, with the names in the order of their ability and a comment written about each one. From about seventy-five schools represented, only after careful scrutiny of the candidates, are participants picked from each school.

With the approach of the concert, frenzied practice occupies each individual taking part. At Potsdam, group rehearsals co-ordinate expert student talents into harmonious musical combinations. Pride in the concert, presented by a choir, orchestra and band, is reward for each participant's efforts.

All-State Festival offers an excellent opportunity to advance to new heights in music and to meet new people.

Franklin Academy

Members of Franklin Academy Concert Band, under excellent direction of Mr. Shaak, presented two outstanding exhibitions of fine music, the Christmas and Spring Concerts.

We shall long remember and appreciate the exceptional talent and marvelous leadership implementing this great organization. If Mr. Shaak's aim was to make a really fine band out of our normally unmusical teenagers, he surely has obtained his goal!

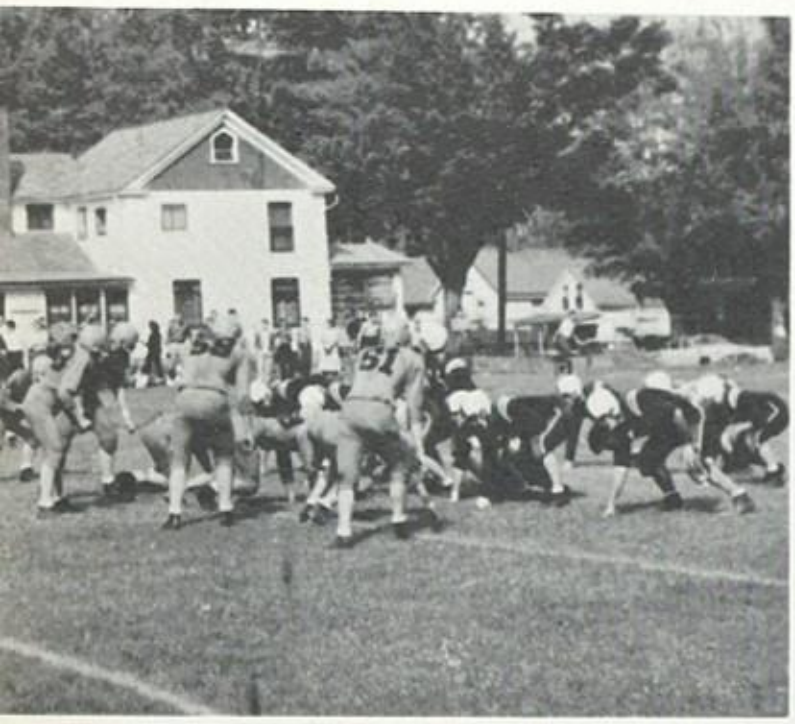
Varsity Action



Potsdam defense anxiously waits for the Franklin "Huskies" to put the ball in play.

Each fall about thirty boys hail the opening of football season. Under the scrupulous tutelage of Coach McGuire, the F.A. squad whips into shape for the trying season ahead.

This year the "Huskies" compiled a 3 and 4 record. Victorious over Saranac and Tupper Lake, the 1957 "Huskies" made football history when they broke Massena's nineteen-year winning streak. The first half of the Massena game ended with F.A., 8; Massena, 0. In the second half, the "Huskies" decided to play it safe. Capitalizing on this strategy, they held the "Red Raiders" to a T.D. and a field goal. Thus the game ended with Massena, 7; Malone, 9.

A. Sauther practices at quarter back position as R. Sauter and R. Roberts look on.

Lineman work on blocking at an after-school practice.

Both teams await the snap of the ball in the Franklin-Potsdam game.

JV Football

First Row: J. Kelly, H. Durham, H. O'Leary, R. Lavigne, D. Fish, S. Allen, G. VanSchaick, D. Childs, J. Cunningham, C. Witherell, G. Dragon. Second Row: S. LePage, R. Allen, M. Boumansour, D. Chauvin, L. Landry, P. Benware, M. McKenna, D. Peckham, D. Brown, F. Passino, B. Monette, D. Horner.

Finding their page in our scrapbook next to their "big brother Huskies," are the "little Huskies." This year's team, under the guidance of Coach Chapman, closed their season with 2 wins, 2 ties, and 2 losses, for a well deserved 500 per cent.

The season started with a 13-16 loss at the hands of Saranac. The second encounter brought about a 7-7 tie with Tupper Lake. Following this deadlock was another 7-7 tie with Massena. Again Saranac loomed indomitable and handed the Husky squad their second loss, 7-6. As the season ended, the little warriors bagged victories over Tupper Lake, 7-0; and Massena, 13-0.

Although their season got under way rather slowly, the "little Huskies" ended it with two shutout victories.

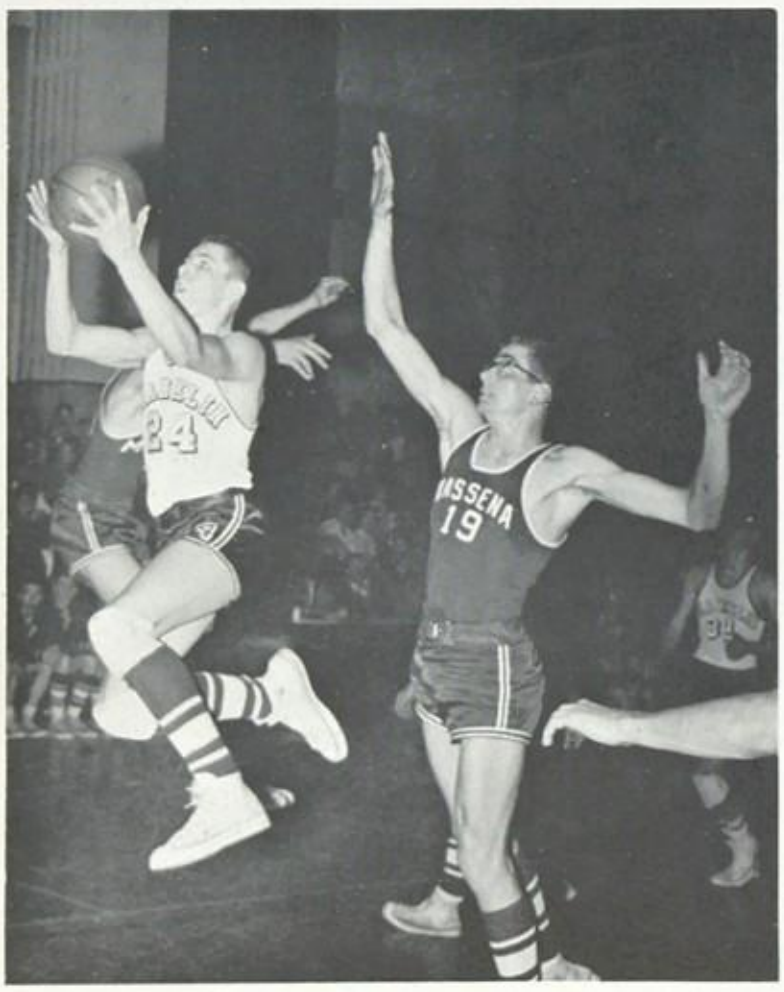
Varsity

Again the "Huskies" of Franklin Academy have done an outstanding job. The 1957-'58 Basketball Team worked hard to maintain their enviable reputation among Northern League contenders.

As usual, the competition was tough; but under the capable guidance of Coach McGuire, the boys came through with flying colors.

The "Red Raiders" from Massena again turned out to be the boys' toughest customers. An early win on our home court, however, gave the team the type of confidence they needed to strive on to a successful season.

Arnie Sauther drives between two Massena players in an attempt to increase the Huskies' lead.



Barney Deshaies blocks Jon Riders' attempted shot as Bob Sauther and Aleck Zaferakis move toward the basket.

First Row: W. Collette, H. Hart, Managers. Second Row: A. Brooks, P. St. Onge, R. Legacy. Third Row: C. Vail, J. Rider, A. Sauther.

Merril Collins attempts to score on a short shot in Norwood-Norfork J. V. game.

Coach Leo Cahill's Junior Varsity basketball team of 1957-1958 maintained a superb record.

As last year, the boys won every game in the first half of the season to lead the Northern League with first place. One of their toughest games was the one played against Ogdensburg on the "Little Huskies'" home court. Ogdensburg led all the way, but in the last few crucial moments of the game, our J. V.'s came through to win by one point.

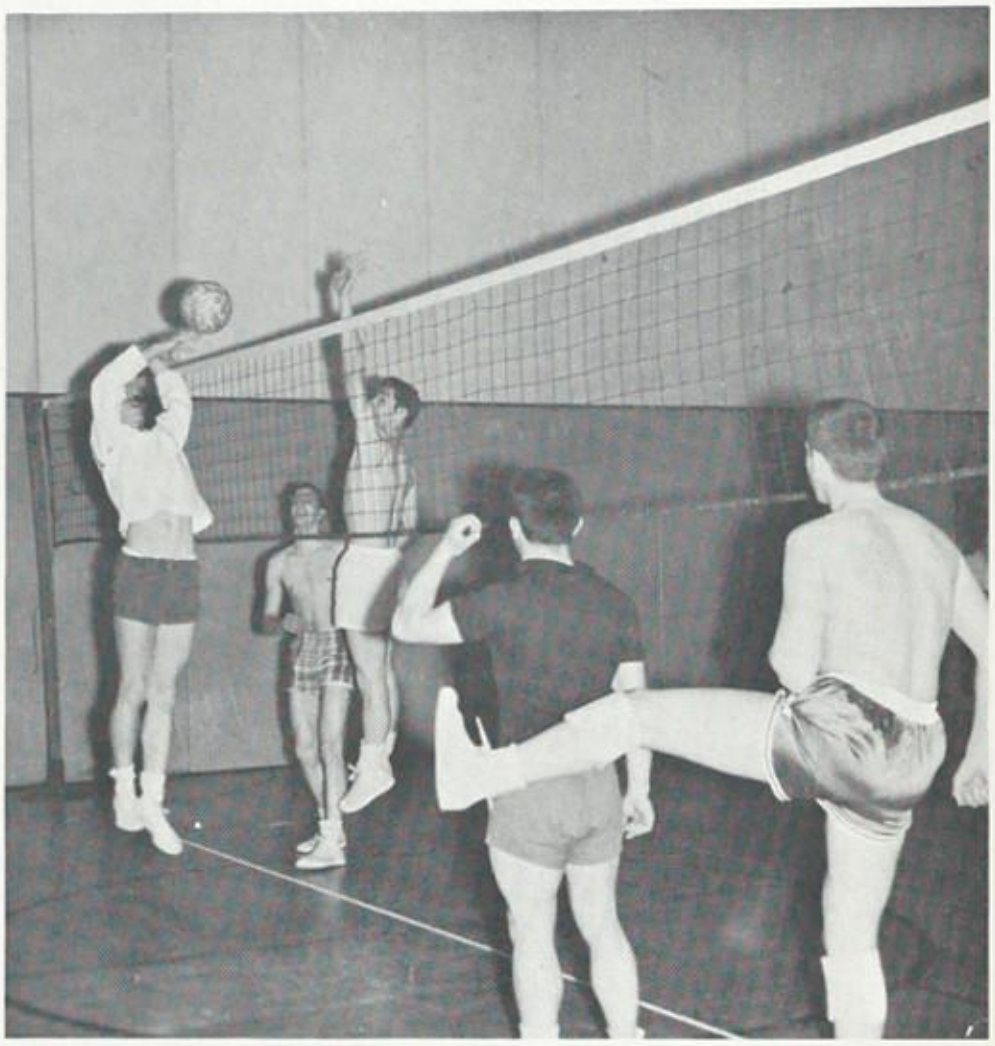
The experience of playing Junior Varsity Basketball not only teaches these boys the game and all the rules of good sportsmanship but prepares them for action in the future as Varsity players.

Jerry Lester gracefully drops in a layup in Norwood-Norfork J. V. game.

Boys' Intramurals

Intramural basketball attracts boys who don't play J. V. or Varsity Basketball.

At Franklin Academy, one of the finest large scale intramural programs is offered. Every Monday and Wednesday, the program is conducted under the supervision of Coach Cahill with the help of other members of the faculty. Offered in this program are bowling, basketball, tennis, volleyball and ping pong. Under the point system, shields, class numerals, and letters are awarded.



Volleyball challenges the skills of many boys.

Everyone gets a chance to play in Intramurals.

Skip Marsden bites Gary Durham's finger in attempt to stop that basket.

First Row: R. Clark, R. Fleury, A. Spaulding, R. Roberts. Second Row: B. Leclerc, R. Legacy, J. Rider, G. Batchelder. Third Row: Mr. Cahill, P. O'Keefe, A. Sauther, G. Boyea, R. Farquhar, W. Collette.

Each spring, after the echo of basketball season has finally subsided, eager boys begin training for track, field events and baseball.

Our 1957 Varsity Baseball Team, with Mr. Cahill as mentor, had a league record of 3 wins and 3 losses for a 500 percentage. Their non-league record was 1 win and 4 losses. The combined result was an overall season record of 4 wins and 7 losses.

Spring Sports

Skip Marsden clears high jump during practice.

George Harte places a close second in a track meet with Gouverneur.

Even though Varsity lost most of their baseball games, some of these were lost by only one run. Thus, our boys proved that they never say die until the last inning and the last pitch!

Coinciding with baseball, our Track Team and Field Events, under capable supervision of Coach McGuire, provided some thrilling displays of speed and prowess.

Track Team participated in four dual meets this year. With two wins and one loss in league competition, we then dropped an exhibition meet with Massena.

At the end of the season, all Northern League teams vied at Ogdensburg in the annual Van Deusen Meet. This year, our team placed fourth. Individual honors went to Paul Raymond, who finished first in the mile, and Donald Falon, who placed second in the broad jump, missing first place by 1/8''. This year's Track Team left us with many proud memories.

Varsity Cheerleaders

Eight vivacious juniors and seniors, comprising Varsity Cheerleaders, are part of the colorful scene enhancing our memories of basketball and football contests.

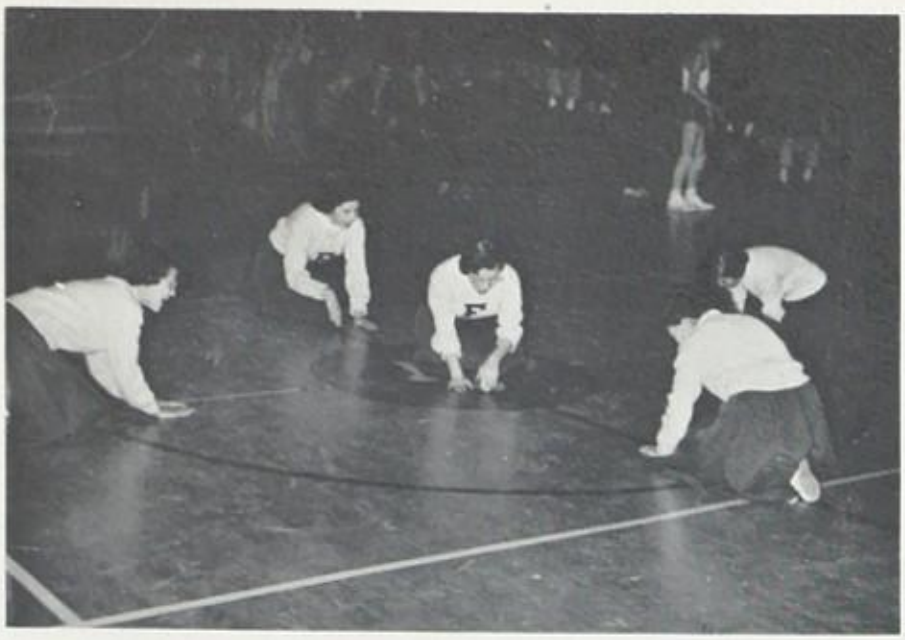
Under expert direction of Miss Seaman every Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, Varsity Cheerleaders polish their talents, so important to school morale.

Pep, precision and spirit displayed by Varsity Cheerleaders at games fire the crowd's enthusiasm. Not until the final whistle sounds, do the cheerleaders cease to prod their team to victory.

Down go the cheerleaders as they urge the team on to victory.

Cheerleaders learn a new routine in preparation for Gouverneur game.

Varsity Cheerleaders reach for sky during Massena football game.



J. V. Cheerleaders execute the "Line Up" at F. A. - O. F. A. game.

Resounding from the gym every Tuesday after school are husky voices of J.V. Cheerleaders. Enthusiasm, co-ordination, and timing are qualities developed among four freshmen and four sophomores comprising the energetic J.V. squad, directed by Miss H. Seaman.

These graceful girls inspire fans' support and players' unmeasured efforts at J.V. basketball and football games.

In our long list of memories are some J.V.'s who eventually graduated to the role of Varsity Cheerleaders.

THANKS

We, the Yearbook Staff, wish to express our thanks to all the people who have made this, the 1958 Yearbook, possible. To the business and parent patrons for their support, to the "Malone Evening Telegram" and WICY for their publicity, to the subscribers to the Yearbook, and to all who in any way contributed to its publishing, we give our hearty appreciation.

This book printed by VELVATONE, a special process of lithographic printing. Sole producers: Wm. J. Keller Inc., Buffalo, N. Y. No other printing firm is authorized to use the Velvatone method.
